Position Category Description
Education, Training, and Career Development

Typical Duties: Faculty and educational administrators who manage, develop, conduct, and evaluate acquisition education, training; and career development programs to include curriculum planning; research and consulting; evaluation and analysis of curriculum materials, training methodology, and instructional systems; and instructing students in acquisition subjects. Developmental acquisition positions are used to provide a period of supervised acquisition experience and/or on-the-job training. Such positions may be at any grade level. Specifically excluded from being designated as a developmental acquisition position are the positions of PEOs, PMs, DPMs, positions in which the duties involve managing or supervising acquisition personnel, and other positions that are essential to the acquisition process. If a developmental position is a CAP, the assignment of a person who is not a member of an Acquisition Corps shall require a waiver.

Representative Job Titles: “Professor,” “instructor,” “executive-in-residence,” “executive director,” “director,” “dean,” “DACM,” and for student or developmental positions, any acquisition-related position title.

Office Location: Acquisition schools (to include the DAU), offices of the DACM, and, in the case of developmental acquisition positions, any acquisition organization.

¹That is a position category only and not a separate career field. That category maybe used for faculty in acquisition schools, for management and oversight of acquisition education training and career development programs, for student positions, for developmental acquisition positions, and for similar assignments. Such positions may instead be placed in a functional position category, particularly when the continued emphasis and requisite background for the position is in a specific discipline, such as contracting or program management.
